V. Elected Officials' Comments

Alderwoman Kuzemchak mentioned that the Frederick Pride Festival is this Saturday. She said that she has a family reunion so she won't be able to attend but remarked that it should be a great celebration and that she hopes everyone who is in town is able to attend.

Alderman Russell said that Friday at 2:00 p.m. is the graduation of the 56th Frederick Police Academy. She said she was in the 25th class and has only missed one graduation in 32 years here. She said if you've not been it is absolutely phenomenal. She said that the Audio Visual Department does a great video production and encouraged everyone to attend the event which is at Thomas Johnson High School this year. She said she anticipates a large audience.

Alderman O'Connor mentioned the MML Summer conference which is coming up Sunday-Wednesday of this week. He said what a fantastic opportunity it is to meet with colleagues across the state to discuss issue of mutual concern. He said one of the interesting pieces of this year is that the PALs program is one of the first sessions on Sunday afternoon. He said he will have the opportunity to moderate that session and remarked at what a great opportunity it is for the City and the program to showcase all of the student's work that has been done here.

The meeting was adjourned at 3:45 p.m.
